Terri Mc Nerney

Terri Mc Nerney is a certified partner of Successful Women Academy™ and the Owner of Inspire the Best, a company that specializes in aligning Leaders, Teams & Business.

Terri has 25 years of experience working with Senior Leaders and Teams in Global 500 companies, covering a variety of industries including oil & gas, broadcast media, pharmaceutical, telecommunications, retail and finance.

Enhancing business performance using strengths-based approaches to resilience, relationships, transition, transformation & culture change is a key focus of hers.

Terri is equally passionate about empowering the next generation of women leaders, engaging and energizing them to live to their purpose and passions and do what they do best.

Prior to independent consulting, Terri worked in a variety of Organizational Development, Change Management and HR Business Partner roles in the Oil & Gas Industry (ConocoPhillips, Amoco, BP) and Banking (Barings/ING)

Terri has an MSc in Organizational Change from Ashridge Business School and is also an accredited Executive Coach and Supervisor of Coaches, with Ashridge/Hult. She is a Master Practitioner in NLP, as well as trained and certified in numerous approaches such as Gestalt in Organizations, Clean Language and Clean Space, Voice Dialogue, Strengthscope and Embodied Facilitation. She started training in Appreciative Inquiry in 1999 with Frank Barrett, David Cooperrider and Diane Whitney and AI has been an integral part of her practice ever since.

Born and based in London (UK), Terri's parents are from Ireland, and growing up, she enjoyed many long summers on the farm to complement her inner city life. She loves travel and has worked in the United States, Europe and the Middle East, as well as facilitating numerous international leadership programmes.

Areas of Expertise: Executive Coaching – Strengths-based Leadership – Accelerated Team Alignment – Business-Life Balance – Positive Transition – Transformation & Change.
